Insulet's Use of Your Information

Insulet Australia PTY LTD collects and uses your personal information, including health information, for the following purposes; to complete your order, to provide ongoing product and customer support, and to improve the services within Insulet. In particular, we need to process information concerning your health (e.g. details about your diabetes treatment). We may share your personal information, including health information, with third parties under the following circumstances and to the extent permitted by law; with our service providers and business partners that perform customer support services and other business operations, with Insulet Group companies which will use your personal information in accordance with our privacy policy; with law enforcement agencies, court, regulators, government authorities or other third parties in order to comply with legal or regulatory obligation, or otherwise to protect our rights or the rights of any third party.

Our use and sharing of your personal information may involve the transfer, storage, and processing of your personal information in a country outside of Australia. We have put in place safeguards (such as contractual commitments) in accordance with applicable local legal requirements to ensure that your data is protected. We retain your personal information for as long as we have a relationship with you, and for a period after you are no longer a customer, taking into account our legal obligations and regulators' expectations, as well as the amount of time necessary for us to maintain records for analysis and audit purposes and to exercise and defend our rights.

As an Omnipod user, you may be eligible to receive subsidised Pods through the National Diabetes Services Scheme (NDSS), operated by the Commonwealth Department of Health and Aged Care (Department) and the NDSS Administrator. Before you can obtain subsidised Pods through the NDSS, you will need to be registered with the NDSS as approved to access them, and you will need to have either a current an up to date no lock-in monthly subscription paid to Insulet or coverage through private health insurance.

Insulet Australia Pty Ltd (Insulet) will facilitate your NDSS approval and assist in the management of your ongoing access to Pods through the NDSS by sharing certain personal information that it collects from you (including your last name, address, date of birth, NDSS ID Number, and the status of your no lock-in monthly subscription paid to Insulet or coverage through private health insurance with the NDSS Administrator and the Department.

Your personal information will also be collected by the NDSS Administrator and the Department each time you order and are dispensed Pods under the NDSS. The NDSS Administrator and the Department may share such information about you and your dispensed Insulet products with us.

Insulet, the NDSS Administrator and the Department share your personal information in the ways described above for the purpose of managing the supply of Pods through the NDSS (to you and to other eligible Pod users) and to maintain the integrity of the NDSS and its supply processes. You can order a maximum of 13 boxes of Omnipod[®] Pods within a 12 month period.

To the extent that information is provided to obtain services from NDSS, that information is governed by NDSS privacy policies, available at <https://www.ndss.com.au/privacy-policy/>

Please see our Privacy Policy at <https://www.omnipod.com/en-au/privacy-policy> for more information about how we collect and use your personal information. You have certain rights regarding your personal information (including your Medical Information), subject to local law. These include the right to access your personal information and the right to rectify the information we hold about you. You also have the right to object to our use of your personal information and you can withdraw your consent to our receipt of your personal information at any time. If you would like to discuss or exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the contact information set out below.
